

Domestic Violence Workgroup of the National Child Traumatic Stress Network

1. How Does Domestic Violence Affect Children?
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_1.pdf>
2. Celebrating Your Child's Strengths
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_2.pdf>
3. Before You Talk to Your Children: How Your Feelings Matter
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_3.pdf>
4. Listening and Talking to Your Children About Domestic Violence
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_4.pdf>
5. The Importance of Playing with Your Children
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_5.pdf>
6. Keeping Your Children Safe and Responding to Their Fears
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_6.pdf>
7. Managing Challenging Behavior of Children Living with Domestic Violence
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_7.pdf>
8. Where to Turn if You Are Worried About Your Children
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_8.pdf>
9. Helping You Child Navigate a Relationship with the Abusive Parent
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_9.pdf>
10. A Parent's Self-Care and Self-Reflection
<http://www.nctsn.org/sites/default/files/assets/pdfs/childrenanddv_factsheet_10.pdf>

NCTSN has many other materials related to domestic violence, identifying child trauma, and assisting children and families on its website at <http://www.nctsn.org/content/resources>