The UAI is composed of 12 pages. There is a shorter, 2-page version of the UAI for private pay individuals applying to reside in or living in assisted living facilities (ALF).

1.2 Organization of the department

The Commissioner of the Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services (DARS), who is appointed by the Governor, directs the Adult Protective Services (APS) Division including Adult Services, APS and the Auxiliary Grant (AG) Programs at the state level.

The Home Office, located in Richmond, develops policies, procedures, regulations, training, and standards for the APS Division. It is responsible for the monitoring and evaluation of these programs, and it allocates and manages funding to the local departments of social services (LDSS). The APS Division programs are state supervised and locally administered.

APS Division Regional Consultants evaluate local programs, serve as resources in the areas of planning, organization, budgeting, and monitoring, and provide training, consultation, and technical assistance to local staff.

LDSS are the setting for direct contact with individuals requesting services. LDSS can assist individuals through benefits and services programs. The latter are administered by service workers, while eligibility workers handle benefit programs. LDSS determine eligibility for participation in service and benefits programs, authorize payments to individuals and vendors for services, and provide direct services to individuals. LDSS use federal, state, and local funds to deliver services.

1.3 Adult Protective Services Division programs

DARS administers the following programs through the APS Division:

- Adult Services
- Adult Protective Services
- Auxiliary Grants Program

1.4 Mission of Adult Protective Services Division programs

The mission of the APS Division programs is to serve adults through programs that:

- Protect older adults and incapacitated adults from abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
- Prevent the abuse, neglect, or exploitation of older adults and incapacitated adults.
- Prevent the inappropriate institutionalization of the elderly and impaired adults.
- Assist when necessary with appropriate placement.

- Maximize self-sufficiency.

1.5 Purpose of Adult Services

Adult Services (AS) are designed to allow the adult to remain in the least restrictive setting and function as independently as possible by establishing and/or strengthening appropriate family and social support systems or by supporting the adult in self-determination.

Adult Services are provided to impaired adults age 18 or older, and to their families when appropriate. Adult Services may include the provision of case management, home-based care, transportation, adult day services, nutrition services, placement services, and other activities to aid the adult.

1.6 Purpose of Adult Protective Services

Adult protective services (APS) are designed to establish and/or strengthen appropriate family and social support systems in order to protect adults at risk of abuse, neglect, or exploitation and to prevent the occurrence of abuse, neglect or exploitation.

APS consists of the identification, receipt, and investigation of complaints and reports of adult abuse, neglect or exploitation (or the risk thereof) as related to adults 60 years or older and incapacitated adults age 18 or older. This service also includes the provision of case management to alleviate the risk of abuse, neglect or exploitation. If appropriate and available, APS may include the provision of or arrangement for home-based care, transportation, adult day services, meal services, legal proceedings, and other activities to protect the adult.

1.7 Distinction between AS and APS

- Provision of AS to eligible adults
 - When there is no valid report of abuse, neglect, or exploitation or the risk thereof, and the adult requests services; or
 - Following APS intervention when the adult continues to need ongoing services but is no longer at risk of abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
- Provision of APS to eligible adults
 - When the LDSS receives and investigates a valid report.
 - The investigation determines the adult needs and accepts protective services or the court orders protective services.

1.8 Philosophy of AS

The following principles are inherent to the provision of AS:

- The worker is an advocate for the adult.
- The adult is the focus of service delivery, and the worker shall preserve and protect the adult's right to self-determination even when there is a community or family request for the LDSS to intervene.
- The least restrictive and least intrusive intervention necessary to stabilize the situation is the most appropriate.
- The adult has the right to make decisions on his or her own behalf until he or she delegates that responsibility voluntarily or the court grants that responsibility to another individual.
- A family-based approach to service delivery enhances services which support and strengthen the adult's informal support system.
- Coordination and combination of formal and informal support systems provide the most effective delivery system.

1.9 Philosophy of APS

The following principles are basic to the planning and delivery of APS:

- Proper protection of adults may require an APS worker to advocate for the right of the capable adult to make his or her own choices even when the community or family may oppose these choices.
- The least restrictive and least intrusive intervention necessary to protect the adult and stabilize the situation is the most appropriate.
- The adult has the right to make decisions on his or her own behalf until he or she delegates that responsibility voluntarily or the court grants that responsibility to another individual.
- Adult abuse, neglect, and exploitation are social problems and their resolution, for the most part, should be sought through the provision of social services and medical services.

However, the legal system often plays a role in remedying adult abuse, neglect, and exploitation and preventing further maltreatment. When appropriate, it is important for APS to partner with legal system representatives, such as law enforcement personnel, during investigations and service delivery.

- Services that support and strengthen the adult's informal support system are vital to the protection of adults who are at risk of abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
- Legal action is considered only after all other alternatives have been explored. When legal intervention is required, the least restrictive means of intervention shall be used.

1.10 Target populations for AS

Target populations served by the LDSS fall into three categories:

- Those required to be served.
- Those encouraged to be served to the extent that funds are available.
- Those served at the option of the LDSS.

1.10.1 Required to be served

The target population required to be served includes the following:

- An adult with an impairment who is in need of preadmission screening (PAS) for nursing facility placement, Medicaid home and community-based waiver services, or assisted living facility assessment.
- An adult with an impairment who has a low income who is in need of home-based services, to the extent that funds are available.
 - Each local board shall provide for the delivery of home-based services that include homemaker, companion, or chore services that will allow individuals to attain or maintain self-care and are likely to prevent or reduce dependency, to the extent the funds are made available to each locality.

1.10.2 Encouraged to be served

The target population encouraged to be served to the extent that funds are available include the following:

- An adult with an impairment who, upon emancipation from custody of the LDSS, is in need of services.

- An adult with an impairment who is in need of alternative living arrangements to avoid institutionalization and who requests services.
- Any adult who is in need of community-based care to avoid institutionalization and who requests services.

1.10.3 Served at the option of LDSS

- The target population to be served at the option of the LDSS includes any family with no minor children in the home that requests services.

1.11 Target populations for APS

Each LDSS, to the extent that funds are available, shall provide adult protective services for adults who are found to be abused, neglected, or exploited and who are:

- 60 years of age or older; or
- 18 years of age or older and incapacitated.

The requirement to provide such services shall not limit the right of any individual to refuse to accept any of the services so offered, except as provided in § 63.2-1608. (§ 63.2-1605 of the Code of Virginia).

1.12 Service workers as mandated reporters

Service workers in an LDSS are mandated reporters pursuant to § 63.2-1606 of the Code of Virginia. Even if the adult is currently receiving services, if the worker believes that an adult is abused, neglected or exploited, or at risk thereof, he shall report this to the appropriate staff in the LDSS.

1.13 Confidentiality

Section 63.2-104 of the Code of Virginia requires that an adult's information be kept confidential. With certain exceptions, an individual shall give written permission before information may be obtained from other sources or given to an individual or an agency. See Chapter 6 for additional information regarding confidentiality of an individual's information. Also see the Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act (§ 2.2-3800 et seq. of the Code of Virginia), and the Freedom of Information Act (§ 2.2-3700 et seq. of the Code of Virginia).

See Chapter 2, Adult Protective Services, regarding confidentiality in Adult Protective Services cases.

1.14 Documentation and record retention

The APS Division uses a computerized web-based case management system called ASAPS to record and maintain case management forms and functions needed to document the activities of the service worker. ASAPS is the case management system of record for all AS and all APS cases. Service workers are required to use all of the ASAPS screens to document APS reports and investigations and the provision of services. All other required forms and documents should be maintained in the adult's case record. The combination of ASAPS and the adult's case record provide the required documentation of the activities of the service worker, the services provided to the adult and that the worker has met the requirements concerning frequency of case contact and other policy requirements.

The LDSS shall maintain an adult's case records in accordance with accepted professional standards and practices. All records shall be complete, accurate, accessible, and systematically organized according to requirements. All record entries, including forms, purchase of services orders, provider/vendor agreements, etc., shall be signed with name and professional title of the author and dated with the month, day, and year.

The Record Analysis Services (RAS) unit at the Library of Virginia is responsible for ensuring that public records are maintained and available throughout their life cycle. RAS publishes Records Retention and Disposition Schedules to assist localities and state agencies with the efficient and economical management of their public records. The record retention and disposition schedule for county and municipal governments social services records (GS-15) is available online on the Library of Virginia's website.

- Adult Services cases that do not contain an APS report, an ALF assessment, or a PAS shall be retained for three years after the last case action.
- Adult Services cases and APS cases with an APS report shall be retained five years after case closure.
- The Department of Medical Assistance Services (DMAS) requires that adult PAS records be retained for six years after the date of case closure. Most PAS records are to be entered into ePAS. Any PAS paperwork not entered into ePAS may be stored in a hard copy file.

Note: Child PAS records shall be retained for at least six (6) years after such minors have reached 21 years of age. Child PAS records are not to be entered into ASAPS. LDSS may maintain child PAS records that are not stored in ePAS in a hard copy file.

- Approved Adult Services Providers Records shall be retained 3 years after last action.
- Records or cases that have been retained for the appropriate time frame shall be destroyed according to number 8 on the first page of the GS-15.

ASAPS case records are purged automatically according to the requirements described above. The LDSS is responsible for purging hard copy records including non-ASAPS client records (e.g. scanned documents).

1.15 Legal basis – Code of Virginia

The following serve as the legal basis for AS, APS and the AG Program. Full text of each of the Code sections is available by accessing the Legislative Information System website.

An applicant or recipient aggrieved by the failure of the local board to make a decision within a reasonable time may also appeal to the Commissioner.

The adult may use the "Appeal to Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services" form available on the VDSS internal website and on the VDSS public website to request an appeal. Additional information on appeals is located in Chapter 9, Appeals.

1.18 APS Division Program report

Each year the APS Division compiles an annual report of statistical data on each of its programs. This report also includes AS/APS contacts in each locality. The report is located on the VDSS internal website, the VDSS public website, and on the DARS public website.

1.19 APS Minimum Training Standards

Section 51.5-148 of the Code of Virginia, requires the establishment of minimum training standards for APS workers in the Commonwealth. APS workers shall complete the required training within one year from the date of implementation of the minimum training standards, within the first year of their employment or within the first year of their being assigned to work in APS.

Continuing education after the first year of training is also required as a part of the minimum training standards plan.

1.19.1 Courses required to be completed within the first year

- ADS1000: Adult Services/Adult Protective Services New Worker Policy Training

- ADS1031: Assessing Capacity
- ADS2013: Investigating Self-Neglect
- ADS2141: APS Facility Investigations

1.19.2 APS on-call workers

CPS workers and others who are responsible for APS on-call or APS intake activities but do not conduct APS investigations, must take ADS 5052: APS for On-Call Workers, an online course offered through the Virginia Learning Center. This online course is in lieu of the full curriculum of required APS core courses.

1.19.3 ADS 5011 Uniform Assessment Instrument (UAI)

NOTE: All qualified assessors for public pay individuals who are seeking admission to or continued stay in an assisted living facility must complete this course in order to conduct appropriate assessments. ADS 5011 is not mandated for individuals who worked in APS in 2004 or earlier. If the worker was employed in APS after 2004, regulations require that the worker complete ADS 5011.

This course provides the skills and techniques necessary for implementation of the UAI in field or office settings. Participants learn methods to obtain complete assessment of the individual's strengths, needs, and family and community resources.

1.19.4 Responsibility of the LDSS

The LDSS director has the ultimate responsibility for ensuring that APS workers receive and document the completion of the required minimum APS training in accordance with these standards. The APS supervisor or the person managing the LDSS APS program shall maintain this documentation in the worker's personnel record.

For APS workers who have not completed the minimum training requirements, the person supervising or managing the APS program at the local department of social services will provide direct supervision (a close review of all investigations and disposition decisions made during the investigation, including documenting the supervisor's review). The supervisor will assure that the APS worker completes the required training within the given timeframes.

1.19.5 Continuing education after first year

After completion of the minimum training standards courses, APS workers shall continue professional development through a minimum of 20 hours of professional continuing education activities annually in the fields of APS, aging, and long-term care. The LDSS APS supervisor or person managing the LDSS APS program should work in collaboration with the APS worker to identify learning activities that may count toward 20 hours of continuing education. Continuing education activities may include organized learning activities from accredited university or college academic courses, continuing education programs, workshops, webinars, seminars, and conferences.

Documentation of continuing education activities is the responsibility of the LDSS.

APS workers are responsible for the management of their continuing education in the field of APS. They are responsible for discussing training with the APS supervisor and ensuring that appropriate documentation is placed in their personnel records.
