LeadingAge Virginia Adult Day Deep Dive

WHAT

For the first time this year, the LeadingAge Virginia Annual Conference & Expo will include an Adult Day Deep Dive focusing on topics of importance to Adult Day Services providers:

First Day Flutters: Transitions Don't Get Easier with Age!

Identify and discuss transition concerns from both the participant and caregiver perspectives and policies to consider for effective transitioning, including staff training and protocol.

Facilitators: Allison Szuba, Executive Director, Adult Care Center of Central Virginia; Michael DiGeronimo, Program Director, Walter Reed Adult Day Health Care Center; and Amy Bodman, CEO, Circle Center Adult Day Services

Dementia Care in Adult Day Services

Approximately 48% of Virginia Adult Day Services participants have Alzheimer's Disease or other dementias (National Center for Health Statistics, 2015). Explore the capacity for empowering staff and motivating participants toward enhanced personhood through dementia care strategies.

Facilitator: Ila Schepisi, Director, Virginia Tech Adult Day Services

Understanding the Proposed Changes in the Adult Day Regulations

Learn about all the information you need to understand the changes to the revised adult day regulation that is moving through the regulatory process. Although the regulation is not finalized yet, this session will provide an overview of the key changes to ensure enhanced protections to participants and improve survey outcomes.

Facilitator: Annette Kelley, Provider Training Consultant with the Virginia Department of Social Services - Division of Licensing Programs
