AmeriCorps dedicates more than $7 million in service hours to Virginia AmeriCorps Week is May 9-16

Richmond, Va. – Governor Timothy Kaine has proclaimed May 9-16 as AmeriCorps Week in Virginia. During the designated week, AmeriCorps members, alumni, project staff members, commission members, friends, and supporters will participate in various events. The goal is to bring more Americans into service, salute members and alumni, and thank the partners who make AmeriCorps possible.

Throughout Virginia, organizations are making a difference and touching lives through participation in AmeriCorps. Last year, AmeriCorps*State resulted in $7.4 million dollars worth of service to Virginia. The Commonwealth's 17 programs and their 371 AmeriCorps members recruited approximately 10,000 volunteers resulting in nearly 380,000 service hours.
