Media invited to community meeting on children's services

Transformation designed to improve outcomes for at-risk youth

The Children's Services System Transformation is currently underway in Virginia. Working across all state and local child-serving agencies, the goal is to improve outcomes for Virginia's at-risk kids and families.

What: Transformation Kick-Off Forum; interviews available immediately prior to and following the meeting

When: Tuesday, April 21; 2 – 4 p.m.

Where: Emporia Municipal Building, City Council Chambers, 201 South Main Street, Emporia, 23847

The Emporia meeting is the final in a series of Transformation Kick-Off Forums that have been held statewide. This forum will provide the public an opportunity to learn more about Transformation work to date, plans for implementation statewide and how localities can benefit and become involved. Representatives from social services, community services boards, court service units, and schools are expected to attend.
