- I have a copy of a payment history from this company.
- I still have services or am under contract to this company.
- I am attaching a copy of the contract.
- I am attaching a copy of the payment history.

If you have a copy of the contract and/or payment history, please provide that information to the Division. We may contact you for additional documents and information.

Section D

If you are the custodial parent and have ever received any child support and/or spousal support payments directly from the noncustodial parent or if you are the noncustodial parent and you have ever made child support and/or spousal payments directly to the custodial parent, fill in this section. Read the instructions below before you fill out this section. Complete the following tables to show the month and year that you received or made direct payments. Failure to complete this form correctly could delay enforcement actions.

Instructions: Start with the first month and year you were entitled to receive support or pay support and continue through to the current month and year. Tables should contain only direct payments from the noncustodial parent to the custodial parent. For any month support was due and payment was not made, enter $0.

Example: You have an order for child support. The noncustodial parent was ordered to pay $300 per month in child support (no spousal support) starting March 1, 2010.
