

WHAT IS

ADULT ABUSE?

Adult Protective Services (APS) receives reports on adults ages 60 and older as well as incapacitated individuals age 18-59. APS investigates reports of adult abuse, neglect or exploitation and can arrange a wide variety of health, housing, social, and legal services to stop the abuse and prevent further mistreatment.

TYPES OF ADULT ABUSE

There are a wide variety of abusive behaviors including:

- PHYSICAL ABUSE — the intentional infliction of physical pain or injury.
- MENTAL OR PSYCHOLOGICAL ABUSE — the intentional infliction of mental anguish by verbal assault, threat, intimidation, humiliation, or other means.
- SEXUAL ABUSE — unwanted sexual activity.
- NEGLECT — not providing services necessary to maintain the adult's physical and mental health.
- SELF-NEGLECT — the failure to provide one's self with the necessities of life, such as food, clothing, shelter, needed medical care, and reasonable financial management.
- FINANCIAL EXPLOITATION — the illegal, unauthorized, improper, or fraudulent use of an adult's funds, property, benefits, resources, or other assets for another's profit, benefit, or advantage.
