What Are Mandated Reporters Required to Report?

Mandated reporters are required to report suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of elders or incapacitated adults.

Reporters should provide the name, age and address or location of the person who is suspected of being abused, and as much information about the abusive situation as possible.

Other Responsibilities Given to Mandated Reporters:

Mandated Reporters are required to share with the local department of social services records and information related to any report of abuse, neglect, or exploitation regardless of who made the report.

What Is the Timeframe for Making Reports?

Virginia law §63.2-1606 says that reports should be made “immediately.”

Is There a Penalty for Failure to Report?

Mandated Reporters who fail to make a report may be fined up to $500 for the first failure and up to $1,000 for subsequent failures. The Commissioner of the Department of Social Services shall determine and impose the fine for all mandated reporters except law enforcement.

APS also will refer matters as necessary to the appropriate licensing, regulatory or legal authority for administrative action or criminal investigation.

Who Should be Contacted?

A mandated reporter must make a report to the local department of social services or to the toll-free 24-hour APS Hotline at 1 (888) 832-3858.

A mandated reporter must report a suspicious death of an adult to the local medical examiner and law enforcement.
