

2nd Annual VA Free File Public Briefing

Featuring Senior Virginia Legislators, Tax Commissioner Craig Burns
Community Leaders and other Special and Invited guests

Please join us for a public briefing and tax training workshop to highlight VA Free File, a public-private partnership between leading tax software companies and the Virginia Department of Taxation that provides FREE online federal and state income tax preparation and e-filing services to Virginia's lower and moderate income taxpayers, active-duty military, students, and seniors.

Virginia Free File fillable form option enables all taxpayers – regardless of income – to enter their tax data and e-file their state return for free.

When: Wednesday, February 13, 2013

- 8:30 a.m. - continental breakfast and registration
- 9:00 a.m. - briefing
- 9:45 a.m. - tax training workshop

Where: Library of Virginia
800 East Broad Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219-8000

Following the briefing, take advantage of a hands-on tax training workshop to learn how easy it is to use programs available through VA Free File, learn more about other free tax services in Richmond, and gain access to outreach materials to inform eligible taxpayers in the community.

With Free File, you can:

- ✓ Receive all the credits and deductions you deserve (including the Earned Income Tax Credit)
- ✓ Pay no hefty fees ✓ File electronically for a faster refund!

To RSVP, please contact Theo Perry by email at perry.theodore1@gmail.com or call (757) 849-8911.

For more information about VA Free File, please visit www.tax.virginia.gov or www.vafreefile.org